

Stacy, Kristine and Matthew — went through the county school system, Harrell said he knows gang problems are not being addressed as thoroughly as they should be.

"I think a school environment should be nurturing, and kids should be afraid of gangs and retribution," said Harrell,

The school board election will be held Aug. 6, and the qualifying deadline is May 21. Thus far, Harrell is the lone candidate in District 1, although another candidate is said to be out collecting signatures on his qualifying petition.

In District 2, which also encompasses part of Milling-
